

The "do not call" list is a most important piece of legislation. The privacy and freedom from harassing and unwanted marketing calls that has resulted from its introduction has improved the quality of our lives. It is no longer necessary for us to go to the added expense and inconvenience of having an unlisted number to obtain this freedom. Please do not weaken it in any way.

Peter Day